

Annual Urban Drainage & Flood Control District Seminar

Ramada Inn and Conference Center at I-25 and 120th Avenue

Agenda

7:30 - 8:00 AM Registration

Morning Sessions - John Doerfer, Moderator

8:00 - 8:30 AM Welcome and State of the District Report

David W. Lloyd,
Executive Director

8:30 - 9:15 AM Drop Structure Selection, Construction, and Maintenance

Mark Hunter, Manager
Maintenance Program
Paul Hindman, Manager
Design & Construction Program.

9:15 - 10:00 AM Ideas on Integrating BMPs Into Urban Landscape

William Wenk and
Paul Thomas
Wenk Associates, Inc.

10:00 - 10:30 AM Break

10:30 - 12:00 AM What Local Governments and Consultants Need to Know About DIFRMs

Bill DeGroot, Manager Floodplain
Management Program,
Dave Jula, Michael Baker, Jr.
Karen Price, CWCB

12:00 - 1:00 PM Lunch

Afternoon Sessions - Paul Hindman, Moderator

1:00 - 1:30 PM What Public Safety Features Every Engineer Needs to Consider When Designing Detention Facilities and Culverts

Jonathan E. Jones, CEO
Wright Water Engineers, Inc.
Prof. James C.Y. Guo,
Univ. of Colorado at Denver
Ben Urbonas, Manger
Master Planning Program

1:30 - 2:15 PM *2005-06 Updates to Volume 3 of the Urban Storm
Drainage Criteria Manual*

2:15 - 2:45 PM Break

2:45 - 3:15 PM Use of Latest Features in District's "Detention," "Street Drainage & Inlets," "Open Channel" Design and Analysis Spreadsheets

Ken MacKenzie and
Laura Kroeger
Sr. Project Engineers,
Design & Construction Program

3:15 - 4:00 PM Maintenance Eligibility Update and Project Examples and Features in the Floodplain Management Program

David Mallory, Sr. Project
Engineer, Floodplain
Management Program

4:00 - 4:30 PM Open Discussion, Q & A and Closing Remarks

David W. Lloyd,
Executive Director